Moscow, September 20.

ON Thursday last Adjutant-General Bestuchef arrived here from Finland, dispatched by Field Marshal Lacy, with the Standards, Colours, and a Pair of Kettle Drums, taken from the Finnish Regiments, which were disbanded pursuant to the Capitulation of the 25th past: And Yesterday those Trophies were carried in a military Procession from the Kremelin to the Palace, (about seven Werst) to be presented before her Czarish Majesty. A Major marched at the Head of a Party of Grenadiers, and the Kettle Drums, Standards and Colours were carried after by Soldiers, trailing them along the Ground. The Streets through which they passed were lined with Spectators. Her Majesty viewed the Procession from the Windows of the Palace; after which the Trophies were carried in, and set up in the Hall, where they remain at present. In the Evening there was a Ball at Court. Yesterday Morning Baron Gersdorff, Chamberlain to the King of Poland, who was sent hither to congratulate the Czarina upon her Coronation, had his Audience of Leave of her Czarish Majesty.

Rome, Sept. 29. The Pope, being extremely desirous to free his Country from the Burthen of Foreign Troops, on the 15th directed M. Bussi, Commodore of the Gallies, (who was sent for on Purpose from Civita Vecchia) to set out for the Romagna, and threaten M. de Gages with Excommunication, in Case he did not soon evacuate the Ecclesiastical State. On the 26th M. Bussi returned to Rome, and acquainted the Pope, that M. de Gages had expressed the greatest Concern on his not having it in his Power to do what the Pope required, as he had not yet received Instructions from his Court since his taking upon him the Command of the Army.

Florence, Oct. 7. On the 29th past the Austrian Cavalry, consisting of about 2500 Horse, commanded by General Pertusati, arrived at St. Lazzero, about a League from the City of Bologna, and on the 2d Instant advanced to Imola; they are now at Bagna Cavallo, Lugo, and Faenza. Marshal Traun with the Foot remains at Buon Porto and upon the Borders of the Panaro. M. d'Apremont with the Sardinian Troops is still in the Modenese.

From the Austrian Camp at Waltsch in Bohemia, October 14. N. S.

The March which we have made To-day hither, and that which we are to make To-morrow to Weitentrebitisch, will, in all Probability, prevent the Junction of the Marshals Broglio and Maillebois. If the Enemy gets to Caaden, we shall be then very near one another in an open Country, where they will be obliged to give us Battle, if they are resolved to pursue the Design of the Junction. Mentzel, Trenk, and another Officer of Hussars bring us in Prisoners every Day; amongst whom is the Marquis de Courtebon a Brigadier, two Captains and a Lieutenant. General Strazaldo, and Lieutenant Colonel Macquair, distinguished themselves greatly the Day before Yesterday, at the Head of their Croates. Having been commanded into the Woods and Mountains, they had certainly been cut off by the Enemy, if they had not made a forced March as far as Elmbogen; but they were scarce there but Count Saxe was up with them at the Head of 900 Men. He summoned the General Strazaldo to surrender, but he sent Macquair to let him know, in Answer, that he commanded a Corps which never surrendered; but, after refusing many of Count Saxe's Demands, they capitulated. Count Saxe granted all that was asked by Macquair, and added an Article, that the Officers should be treated with all possible Civility: So they rejoined us Yesterday, with Drums beating, and their Canons, without any Escorte; and set out again immediately to harrass the Enemy at the Passage of Plosterle, by which they must necessarily go. General Charles St. Ignon is with four Regiments of Horse and three of Hussars

Huſſars at Auſſig, and thereabouts, to look after the Enemies Convoys, which cannot now go back again, if they would. The Regiments of John Palfy, Khevenhuller and Neuperg are march'd away to reinforce Berenclau in Bavaria. Colonel Larchausky, who had rais'd a Regiment of Huſſars for the Emperor, has had it diſperſed in the Neighbourhood of Commetau. Part of it has been taken, and the Colonel, finding no other Way of eſcaping, but through Saxony, has been carried by the Peaſants to Dreſden.

Copenhagen, October 20. N. S. By Letters from Archangel there is Advice, that the Ruſſian Squadron, under the Command of Vice-Admiral Bredal, had ſet ſail from thence for the Baltick, but, meeting with a violent Storm in the North Sea, was diſperſed, that the Ships had ſuffered very much, and, ſome of them been obliged to put into Kola, while the reſt returned to Archangel, but that two were ſtill miſſing.

Dreſden, October 21. N. S. Count Saxe was ſuppoſed, by making himſelf Maſter of Elmbogen, to have gain'd two Marches on the Auſtrians towards Prague, but no Advantage has been taken from it, Marſhal Maillebois not having ſeconded him, nor advanced, as yet, any farther towards a Junction with Broglio. On the contrary, he has let the Auſtrians get before him to Caaden, and is, as we have been informed here, determined, if poſſible, to retreat from Schlakenwald towards Amberg, in the Upper Palatinate, tho' it is likewiſe ſaid, that he is ſo inveſted as not to be able either to make the leaſt Motion, without expoſing himſelf to be attacked under great Diſadvantages, or to abide long in the Poſition he is in for want of Forage: And at the ſame Time we hear that Marſhal Broglio is return'd to Prague with the old Garriſon, except what had eſcaped, and what he has poſted at Leuthmeritz, and at ſome other Places, to ſecure a Paſſage to Saxony. There are near twenty Officers from Prague paſs every Day through Saxony, ſome with, and ſome without their Diſmiſſion, reſolved to ſerve no longer in that Country. Count Saxe himſelf has already ſent his Baggage the ſame Way; and, it is ſaid, that ſeveral Officers of his Regiment, which is compoſed ſolely of Germans, have likewiſe asked their Diſmiſſion, which was readily granted. The Great Duke has detached 6000 Men towards Paſſau, which makes the abovementioned Conjecture of Maillebois's Deſign of retreating, appear more credible.

Hamburgh, October 23. N. S. Letters from Francfort of the 14th Inſtant, bring Advice, that Count Seckendorff was marched to Waſſerbourg to attack the Auſtrians who had intrenched themſelves there, and that he had given Orders, that every Bavarian from the Age of 18 to 50, ſhould immediately join his Army with ſuch regular Arms, as they might be provided with, and that they who had none ſhould ſupply the Want of them with Hatchets, Pick-Axes, &c. Captain Trendel is ſet out from Stockholm, to inform the Court of Ruſſia, that Baron Gedda, and M. Nolken, are appointed Plenipotentiaries, on the Part of Sweden, to treat of ſuch Terms of Peace, as may reſtore the Tranquility of the North. Prince William of Saxe Gotha arrived here on the 20th Inſtant, and his Nuptials with the Princeſs Anne of Holſtein are to be celebrated the 8th of next Month.

Hague, October 26. N. S. There are certain Advices, that the King of Sardinia, being arriv'd on the 15th Inſtant with his whole Army in the Neighbourhood of Mont Melian, where the Spaniards were incamped, and his Sardinian Majeſty marching forwards in order to attack them, they immediately retreated with great Precipitation, and were purſued by his Majeſty to the Frontiers of Savoy, which Dutchy they entirely evacuated, and are returned into France.

Whitehall, October 1, 1742.

Whereas it has been repreſented to his Majeſty, that on Tueſday the Thirty Firſt Day of Auguſt laſt, about Eleven or Twelve o'Clock at Night, Mr. Iſaac Decker, Commander of the Cutter in the Service of the Cuſtoms at Colcheſter, chaſed another Cutter off Felixtow, in the County of Suffolk, Thomas Cobby, Maſter, ſuppoſed to be laden with Run Goods, which Cutter made cloſe for the Shore; and that the Officers purſuing her, were met by thirty or forty Smuglers armed, who kept a conſtant Fire at them, and killed John Mills, one of the Mariners belonging to the Cuſtom-houſe Cutter. For the better diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice the Perſon or Perſons who committed the ſaid Murder, his Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe his moſt gracious Pardon to any one of them (except the Perſon that actually killed the ſaid John Mills) who will diſcover his Accomplice or Accomplices, ſo as he or they may be apprehended and convicted thereof. HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

And as a further Encouragement for ſuch Diſcovery, his Majeſty is pleaſed to promiſe a Reward of Fifty Pounds to any Perſon or Perſons whatſoever, who ſhall make the ſaid Diſcovery, payable by the Receiver-General of his Majeſty's Cuſtoms, on the Conviction of one or more of the ſaid Offenders, over and above what he or they are intitled to by Act of Parliament.

Admiralty-Office, Sept. 24, 1742.

Notice is hereby given, that a Seſſion of Oyer and Terminer and Goal Delivery, for the Tryal of Offences committed on the High Seas within the Juriſdiction of the Admiralty of England, will be held on Tueſday the 9th Day of November next, at Juſtice-hall in the Old Baily, London, at Eight of the Clock in the Morning. Tho. Corbett.

General

General Post Office, London, July 3, 1742.

Whereas divers Perſons, thro' Ignorance or Careleſneſs, frequently put Letters into the General Poſt Offices, and the Receiving Houſes both in Town and Country, directed on board of Ships, and to Foreign Parts, without paying at the ſame Time the Poſtage, as ought to be done; And whereas Letters and Packets are often put into the ſaid Offices with Money and Rings incloſed, and in Fraud of his Majeſty's Revenue, divers Perſons preſume to ſend Letters with falſe and counterfeit Franks;

This is to acquaint the Publick, that no Letters under any of the Circumſtances aforeſaid have any Right by Law to be forwarded.

Note, That Letters going out of Great Britain (except to France, Holland, and Flanders) have by the ancient Uſage of this Office paid the Foreign Poſtage, and are required by the Act of Parliament ſo to do, at the Office in Great Britain where the ſame are firſt put in.

Note alſo, That if ſuch Letters to Foreign Parts are put into any of the Country Offices, the Inland Poſtage of ſuch Letters to London muſt alſo be paid on putting the ſame into ſuch Office.

By Command of the Poſt Maſter General,
George Shelvocke, Secretary.

General Poſt-Office, London, Sept. 29, 1742.

POST CHAISES between London and Bath.

This is to acquaint the Publick, that the ſeveral Poſtmaſters on the Road between London and Bath, are ready to furniſh any Gentlemen, or others, with Poſt Chaiſes, ſafe, eaſy, and well ſecured from the Weather, with a Lamp to give ſufficient Light in dark Nights, upon as ſhort Warning as for Poſt Horſes, any Hour either in the Day or Night. And farther Notice is hereby given, that whereas the Diſtance between Marlborough and Bath, has never yet been conſidered as Poſt Road, it will be computed at Thirty four Miles, according to Tompion's Meaſurement between thoſe two Places. Gentlemen who have Occaſion to go Poſt on the Bath Roads, are deſired to apply to Mr. Miller, Poſt-maſter, at the White Bear in Piccadilly.

N. B. A Poſt Chaiſe may be had at any of the Stages on the Bath Road, to go Part or all the Way, for one or more Stages, for thoſe who do not chuſe to travel in the Night. By Command of the Poſt-Maſter-General,
Geo. Shelvocke, Secretary.
